Education is a long 1.....that not only provides with basic skills such as literacy and 2....., but also essential in shaping our future lives. From the moment we enter kindergarten as small children, and as we 3through primary and secondary educations, we are laying the foundations for the 4..... ahead for us. We must discipline ourselves to work 5..... so that we can pass exams and gain the qualifications we will need to 6..... a good job. We must also acquire 7.....life skills so that we can fit in and work with those around us. And of course health education helps us to 8.....how we can stay fit and healthy.

2- Put the bracketed words in the right form or tense

Technology has come a long way in the last fifty years, and our lives have become better as a result. The second half of the twentieth century (see)..... more changes than in the previous two hundred years. Penicillin has already been discovered and used to treat infections; there have been many (remark) advances in medicine that have helped to increase our average life expectancy way beyond that of our ancestors. Incredible (innovate) such as television have changed the way we spend our leisure hours. Perhaps the most important breakthrough, however, (be) the microchip. Nobody could have imagined when it was first invented, that within a matter of years, this tiny piece of silicon and circuitry would be (find) in almost every household object from the kettle to the video (record)..... And nobody could have predicted the sudden proliferation of computers that would completely change (we) lives, (allow)us to access information from the other side of the world via the internet.

3- Report what the press said about Stanley the multi-millionaire businessman and the head of Arnold Motors

'Arnold Motors has never paid any tax. Stanley spends the company's money at a Las Vegas casino. When he dies, he will probably leave more than $500 million. But, he is planning to leave his money to a dogs' home. Worse still, Stanley has friends in the Mafia. In effect no one will be sorry when he's gone'
